

Pickpocket alert after four thefts

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

POLICE are warning residents to be careful after four reports of thefts from pockets and handbags in one week.

The incidents took place in public locations in Haverhill town centre.

They all involved items as valuable as a birth certificate, a £500 iPhone and a passport being reportedly taken from bags and pockets.

Between 9.10am and 10.30am on Tuesday, August 18, a woman reported having her purse taken from her handbag while she was shopping in Haverhill town centre.

The purse contained items including her NHS medical card, driving licence, bank cards and passport. It was a Paul's Boutique purse with blue anchors and red hearts on it, which was worth about £10.

Another theft was reported between 4pm and 5pm on Wednesday, August 19 in either Iceland or Costa Coffee on the High Street.

An iPhone 6+ worth £500 was taken.

A third theft in Haverhill High Street was reported between 12.50pm and 1.40pm on Saturday, August 22.

In this case the victim's wallet was stolen from his pocket.

The black leather wallet contained numerous cards, a £5 note and his birth certificate.

The final incident reported was a theft from a handbag at around 10.20am on Monday.

In this case, a purse was taken from the bag while it was left in a public area in Haverhill Library in Camps Road.

The pink leather purse contained bank cards and the victim's driving licence.

Haverhill Police's PCSO Lorna Chapman reminded residents to keep their pockets zipped and to avoid putting items in back pockets.

She advised residents that they can go to the police station in Swan Lane for advice about crime prevention, or to pick up security devices.

Devices include a chain which can be used to attach a wallet to a pocket or handbag, and bells which can be attached to a wallet or purse.

If you have any information about the incidents detailed above call Haverhill Police on 101.

SUCCESS
STORY: Katie
Donno

Joy for Katie, 16, as hard work pays off

A STUDENT from Linton Village College who spent the last two years in a wheelchair has beaten all the odds to achieve 5 A*-C grades in her GCSEs.

Aspiring make-up artist Katie Donno, 16, was diagnosed with Complex Regional Pain Syndrome (CRPS) two years ago.

But after making it through a three-week stay in hospital – and with the help of a home tutor – she's now got the grades to start her media and make-up course at Cambridge Regional College (CRC).

Katie, from Haverhill, said she was delighted with her results, which came after a "stressful" two years.

She said: "Being at home learning with my tutor was hard but without her I wouldn't have done it."

"I'm in constant pain all down my right side, especially in my leg, so I can't walk. I was in hospital for three weeks in the summer of June 2014 and I couldn't study during those weeks."

FLORENCE SNEAD
@FlorenceSneadCN

But staff at the college helped her through the challenging period and now Katie said she's looking forward to her new start at CRC.

"I have bookings for make-up consultations so it's mainly that that's filling my summer – and trying not to stress myself out before college," she added.

Katie's parents couldn't be prouder of her achievements. Her dad Paul Donno, chair of Haverhill Chamber of Commerce, said: "It's absolutely fantastic – she's had a really tough time so she's done brilliantly. We are very proud."

The teenager has already made plans for the future and has got the ball rolling by helping out with amateur theatre productions and starting a makeup tutorial Youtube channel.

Another Linton student has scooped a string of A*s in his GCSE exams after juggling schoolwork with his work uploading online tutorials for a mini computer invented in Cambridge.

gling schoolwork with his work uploading online tutorials for a mini computer invented in Cambridge.

Matt Timmons-Brown, otherwise known as the 'Raspberry Pi guy', has become a familiar face in the county's technology scene and has now added another string to his bow by achieving 9A*s and 1 A.

The 16-year-old, who lives with his family in Bartlow, will now head off to Hills Road Sixth Form College to study double maths, physics, computer science and electronics.

Matt, whose Youtube videos attract thousands of views, said it had been important – although difficult – to balance his Raspberry Pi tutorials with his revision.

He added: "When it ramped up to my exams I started to lay off and focus on revision. Over the course of the two years it was just making sure I'd stay on top on my school work and then going and making a tutorial."

CRIME

£4,000 of fire alarm parts stolen

RADIO bases for fire alarms and smoke detectors worth £4,000 have been stolen.

The bases were taken from a Volkswagen van parked in Haverhill's Green Road some time between 7.45am on Tuesday, August 18 and 7am on Wednesday, August 19.

The van was parked outside its owner's home address, and the thieves used unknown methods to get into the van.

Once they had stolen a quantity of radio bases worth £4,000, they secured the vehicle back up before departing.

Anyone who saw anything suspicious, or has any information regarding this incident, should call Haverhill Police on 101.

Alternatively, you can call Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

INQUEST

Lesley's heart punctured in fatal fall, inquest told

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

THE former headteacher of a Haverhill primary school died after falling from a horse in the stable yard, an inquest heard on Monday.

Lesley Farrow, 47, who had been head of Clements Primary School in Greenfields Way until last year, died on July 11.

Assistant Coroner Dr Sharpstone read a statement from Mrs Farrow's husband Tim Farrow detailing what happened on the day of the accident.

The statement said that Mr Farrow and his son had returned from a day's motor-cycle riding just as Mrs Farrow was about to set off for a ride.

Mr Farrow's statement went on: "The horse was slightly playing up, but that's what horses do. I reminded her to be careful."

The statement said it was the Farrow's daughter who discovered what had happened: "My daughter ran round and found me and said her mother had fallen."

"I caught the horse and put it back in the stable. My wife tried to get up and couldn't."

"My children talked to her. I could see that it was very serious so I rang for an ambulance."

"They took her to the West Suffolk Hospital. I checked the children were OK and went."

"She arrived around 6.45pm."

According to what Mr Farrow's daughter told him about the accident, "the horse saw a pony in the stable, bucked and ran to meet her." This caused Mrs Farrow's fall.

A statement from West Suffolk Hospital anaesthetist Jeremy Field said that when Mrs Farrow was admitted to hospital, "she was rousable and spoke coherently".

Doctors gave her a rapid blood transfusion and a CT scan to determine the damage.

Her heart stopped several LOVELY LADY: Lesley Farrow died following a fall from her horse in the stable yard, an inquest has heard times during this process, but it was restarted and she went into surgery.

On the operating table, doctors discovered that one of her fractured ribs had punctured her heart.

She was declared dead at 9pm after suffering heart attacks while in surgery.

The medical causes of her death were recorded as a haemorrhage and her heart being punctured by a cracked rib.

Dr Sharpstone recorded a verdict of accidental death.

Mr Farrow's statement said: "Lesley had a very busy life. She was a dutiful mother and had a very successful career as a teacher. She always appeared fit and was very energetic."

Mrs Farrow was headteacher of Clements Primary Academy from 2009 to 2014.

The school expanded to admit more pupils, and moved into new premises while she was headteacher. Its Ofsted rating rose from "satisfactory" to "good".

The school's most recent Ofsted report praised Mrs Farrow's "determined and visionary leadership during a time of significant expansion and change."

Clements pupils were told about Mrs Farrow's accident in a letter from the school the week after it happened.

The school plans to arrange appropriate tributes to Mrs Farrow in due course, and has created a book of remembrance for well-wishers to sign.

Suffolk County Council said it was providing support to pupils who needed it at the school.

Karen Smith, whose son Charlie attends the school, said on behalf of the Friends of the Clements parent group: "Our hearts go out to her family for their loss. She was a pleasure to be around. She was always smiling. She loved the school and the children."

"She was well respected and professional, and not only was she a brilliant headteacher, she was a lovely lady."

Mrs Farrow was working at Woodhall Community Primary School in Sudbury, at the time of her death.

Schools celebrating as students make the grade

DELIGHTED: Smiles all round on results day at Samuel Ward Academy

STUDENTS in the Haverhill area were celebrating last Thursday as GCSE results were released.

At Samuel Ward Academy, students were having "one of our best ever years", according to head of house James Mason.

An impressive 47 per cent of students achieved the criteria for the "English Baccalaureate": A* to C grades in English, maths, two sciences, a language and either history or geography.

Twenty per cent of all the GCSE entries were A* or A grades, and one student, Kate Lawes, achieved an amazing nine A* grades, as well as three As and a B.

The school's principal Andy Prestoe said: "The results are fantastic, and a just reward for an awful lot of hard work."

"The resilience and determination that our pupils have shown in achieving them has been remarkable, and the progress that they have made is impressive. I am delighted for them."

"That this has been realised against a backdrop of more demanding examinations and rising expectations of young people also says a lot about the quality of teaching and support offered by our staff and their parents."

Mr Mason added: "This has been one of our best ever years for GCSE results. There are a great many pupils who have surpassed their expectations."

"It just goes to show what can be achieved if you aim high and keep trying to improve."

At Castle Manor Academy there was some disappointment with mathematics results, but the English results were strong, and 24 per cent of GCSE entries were A* to B grades.

However, the school is investigating after a number of students received lower grades than expected in maths.

Castle Manor's head of school Vanessa Whitcombe said: "Castle Manor students have worked incredibly hard to achieve their results and we are very proud of them."

"Thank you for the support and hard work of parents and all staff who have contributed to these achievements.

"While we have achieved some excellent results in areas such as English, music and engineering, the maths results for a small group of students are below those we expected.

"We are looking closely at the reasons behind this, including working with the examination board. We continue to strive for the best possible outcomes for our students."

Other schools in the area where young people were picking up their results included Linton Village College and Stour Valley Community College in Clare.

At Linton Village College, a number of pupils achieved well beyond their predicted grades.

The school's principal, Caroline Derbyshire, said: "We are especially pleased that 83 per cent of our students achieved five A* to C grades in GCSE and that is without including any equivalent qualifications like iGCSE or BTEC.

"We are also proud of the progress made by all pupils, including those receiving pupil premium or with special educational needs.

"A number of young people achieved more than two grades, on average, higher than their expected targets."

At Stour Valley Community College, mathematics was the subject where pupils shone, with 73 per cent achieving A* to C grades.

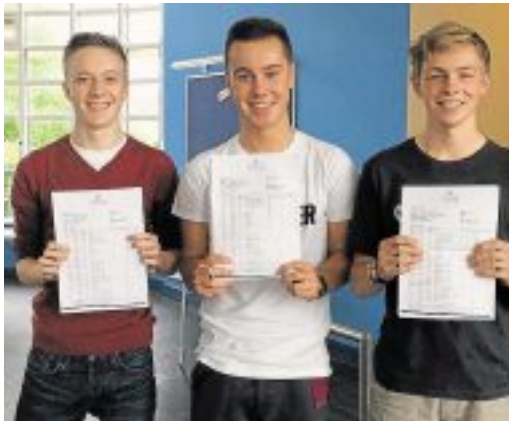

Individual pupils who stood out included Will Baker, Chloe Megeath and Bethany Strellis who each achieved nine A* and A grades.

Headteacher Christine Inchley said: "The progress made by students at Stour Valley continues to be impressive at all levels and these excellent results are a reflection of the hard work and dedication of students and staff at the school."

The Haverhill results come against a backdrop of rising

results across Suffolk.

Provisional results suggest a 4 per cent rise in the number of students achieving five A* to C grades, up from 52 per cent to 56 per cent.

The numbers also indicated that 72 per cent of schools had seen a rise in the attainment of disadvantaged GCSE students.

Cllr Lisa Chambers, Suffolk County Council's cabinet member for education and skills, said: "We are particularly pleased to see a substantial improvement in results for disadvantaged pupils across Suffolk; this rapidly closes the gap in attainment for this group. This remains an important focus of our action plan for school improvement.

"The overall rise in students meeting our expected attainment levels is testament to the hard work and commitment of heads, governors, teachers, parents and, most importantly, students."

We're not all on the internet

ACCORDING to recent figures released by the Office for National Statistics, there are approximately 5 million people in the UK (14% of all UK households) who have never used the internet. The East of England alone is home to 501,000 such people. The figures increase significantly for the most vulnerable groups within our society, such as the elderly.

This doesn't account for the further millions of people who simply do not have digital skills or confidence needed to manage sensitive financial information safely online. It also ignores the many thousands of disabled people (and their carers) whose often fluctuating physical abilities mean that managing their affairs online is often impractical or indeed impossible. Despite these figures, many UK businesses such as banks, utility providers and telecoms companies have put more and more emphasis on digital communication as part of their approach to customer services.

Banks have encouraged customers to switch to online-only accounts. Energy companies offer lower costs if you abandon the traditional paper bill. Even the Government is keen to push as many public services as possible online.

Many would have you believe that people who don't want to manage their affairs online represent an insignificant minority. These people are painted as luddites clinging on to an outdated and impractical system.

The Keep Me Posted campaign is dedicated to making sure that everyone has a choice in how they receive bills and statements from their providers, and aren't financially penalised for needing or wanting to manage their affairs by post. We have found that most of us believe this should be a basic consumer right. Our extensive research has also found that even people who are digitally capable tend to manage their affairs better if they communicate with their provider via post.

We must protect the rights of all consumers and make sure we don't apply a 'one size fits all' approach to something as essential as customer communication.

Get active

DEMENTIA research published in The Lancet this week suggests that 'attention to optimum health early in life might benefit cognitive health late in life'.

Inactivity is a risk factor for dementia, yet walking to school or work is a simple way to build more activity into our everyday routines. Walking is good for mental health as well as physical health, and making one small change to our day can have a huge impact on our lives. Living Streets organises the nationwide Walk to School and Walk to Work Weeks, as well as the well-established National Walking Month in May. Post office is on the move

THE relocation of a post office in Haverhill is going ahead despite residents raising concerns about the new location and its privacy and security.

The Clements post office is currently located in Norton Road. On Wednesday, September 9 at 5.30pm it will close for the last time.

The new post office, located in the Londis at 1-2 Gloucester Road on the Clements Estate, will open at 1pm on Thursday, September 10.

The decision to move the post office has been made after a six-week public consultation run by the Post Office, in which they asked for the opinions of local people.

During the consultation, residents raised concerns over "the extra distance some customers would have to travel, whether there would be enough space inside Londis for a Post Office, privacy, security and car parking facilities", the Post Office said.

Now the move into Londis is going ahead as planned.

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

The new premises will have a car park at the front and back, and will fall in line with post office regulations regarding space.

In response to concerns about distance, as the new site is 350m from the old one, a spokesperson for the Post Office said: "For some customers the branch will be further away, but for others it will be closer."

The new post office would have a different layout style with open-plan tills instead of screened counters.

A spokesperson for the Post Office said: "We are working with the new operator to ensure there is an appropriate level of privacy at the Post Office counter, for instance queue layout and asking customers to stand back from the counter whilst they are waiting for service."

The change in layout is part of a £1.34bn nationwide modernisation project for the Post Office.

The new Clements Post Office will also have its opening hours more than doubled, increasing from 37.5 hours a week to 103 hours.

The new branch will be open from 6am to 9pm Monday to Thursday and 7am to 8am on Sunday.

A spokesperson for the Post Office said: "We carefully considered the original proposal, the feedback received during the public consultation period and the impact on local residents and the wider community."

Cambridge Fireplaces & Woodburners

Supply only OR Full Installation

From start to finish a job well done

Our wood burner was installed yesterday by Terry and Carole and we would like to say how pleased we were with their work. They were extremely courteous, pleasant and efficient and took the time to explain everything very well.

Just to say how pleased I am with the gas fire that I had fitted yesterday and particularly how hard Dave and George worked for the whole time they were here, doing a great job. Please pass on my thanks and mustn't forget Cam for his part - thanks guys.

BOOKS

Comic tales of Bruiser the cat

IN PRINT: Frederick Webb, left, has written a book about the years he shared with Buster the cat

A TOM cat from a Barnardiston animal sanctuary has become the star of a new book.

Frederick Webb, 77, who lived in Biscay Close, Haverhill for 20 years, published his second book about Bruiser the Cat 1st month.

With the title The Chronicles of Bruiser the Cat, it is written from the feline's point of view, sharing his musings on life and his owner.

The character is based on Frederick's own cat, who came from Jaybeth Animal Sanctuary in Barnardiston.

Frederick, who now lives near Southampton, said: "I got Bruiser the cat from the animal sanctuary because I had lots of cats coming into my garden. My friend said: 'If you get a big old tom cat it will chase everybody away.'"

"When he arrived, he wasn't very sociable with me, but he was extremely sociable with the other cats!"

HANNAH MIRSKY

@HannahMirskyCN

The books rose out of short humorous pieces that Frederick wrote for friends while he was living in Biscay Close.

"It's a funny book, even the idea that a baffled old tomat could come from Jaybeth and live with me and from that he writes a book," said Frederick.

"I would sit in my office and look onto my lawn and think about it. I had an old computer and I was very good friends with my lettings agents and once or twice a week I would write them chronicles of Brusier the Cat."

It was the positive responses to these bits of writing from the lettings agents and other friends who later read them that prompted Frederick to put together his first book about Bruiser.

Sadly, Bruiser, who lived with Frederick for seven or eight years, died in the late 2000s.

Frederick said: "I buried him under the tree that he loved to climb but could never get down from. When I'd get him halfway down he would leap off as though it was easy."

Other aspects of life in the Haverhill area have also been included in Frederick's writing. He was born in Little Thurlow, and grew up there during the Second World War.

He says that Thurlow Park was occupied by the Ministry of Defence during the war, and children were not allowed into it. Now he uses it as the setting for the fairy tale he writes.

Signed copies of The Chronicles of Bruiser the Cat are available for £6.95 from www.winstongrit.com.

Copies will also be sold at Haverhill's Henderson's newsagents in Haverhill High Street.

HEALTH

GP recruitment scheme launched

A UNIQUE scheme has been launched to recruit GPs in Suffolk.

The Suffolk GP Fellowship scheme is aimed at encouraging young GPs who have just finished their training to take up vacant posts in Suffolk.

It could lead to a job in a surgery, a hospital placement, and further opportunities for learning abroad.

The scheme aims to develop young GPs' skills and turn them into future leaders.

The scheme's clinical co-ordinator, Dr John Cannon, who has 34 years' experience as a GP, said: "We do have a real recruitment issue in Suffolk, which this scheme aims to address."

"The GP Fellowship Scheme would be very interesting to those who want to enhance their careers and their life-long learning opportunities."

"The GP would spend time in practice and undertake a hospital clinical placement in a specialism they want, such as cardiology, accident and emergency or gastroenterology."

"The chance to go to New Zealand, particularly, is unique. The idea of having a variety of opportunities in further education, such as a funded masters, is excellent."

The new scheme has been developed by the West Suffolk Clinical Commissioning Group alongside the, Suffolk GP Federation and Ipswich and East Suffolk CCG and in partnership with NHS West Suffolk Foundation Trust and NHS Ipswich Hospital Trust.

CRIME

Window broken at town club

VANDALISM has taken place at Haverhill's ex-servicemen's club in Quaker Lane.

The incident took place between 11pm on Sunday, August 16 and 11am on Monday, August 17.

A window at the club was smashed, and the flooring was flooded after vandals left a tap running.

Steve Russell, the secretary of the ex-servicemen's club and the person responsible for sorting out the damage, said: "It's kids throwing stones at the window. I've called the police. There's very little I can do."

He said that one of the members of the club who works in double glazing would assist with the repair of the window.

Anyone who has any information or saw or heard anything on the evening should contact Haverhill Police on 101 quoting crime reference number HH/15/2089.

Alternatively, you can call Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

SURVEY

Dementia trips

A CARE home has been running a survey into good days out for people with dementia.

Care UK, which runs Haverhill's Cleves Place care home, asked family carers whether they take dementia sufferers.

Suggestions included Needham Lakes near Stowmarket and Framlingham Castle.

Sharlene Van Tonder, Cleves Place manager, said: "The survey explored how often people take trips out, the challenges they may face and most crucially their recommendations for dementia-friendly places to visit locally."

Garden centre appears on radio

RADIO presenters paid a visit to a garden centre after solving a riddle.

The presenters of BBC Radio Essex's Essex Quest, Mike and Liane, turned up at Sturmer Nurseries on Sunday, August 23.

They had successfully solved three clues, against the clock, to uncover mystery locations in Essex.

The cryptic clue they had to solve was: "Mix ingredients together (stir), observe the night sky (astronomer) and leave your children at more than one of these whilst at work (nurseries)."

The garden centre's owner Robert Mason met the presenters and led them to the winning poem attached to a Sturmer Pippin tree.

He said: "It was great fun. At one stage I thought they would not get to us in time as they were bogged down on the first clue."

"They were also a bit confused as they thought we might be in Suffolk, but we are actually a couple of hundred yards inside Essex."

The presenters arrived at Sturmer Nurseries with just three minutes left to spare.

The other locations they visited were the Halstead Antiques Centre and Colne Valley Railway.

NOSTALGIA

Do you have pictures for anniversary celebration?

HANNAH MIRSKY

@HannahMirskyCN

DO you have any pictures of the Old School Community Centre in Clare?

They're wanted for an exhibition of the history of the building.

The 19th-century Gothic hall became a community centre in 1990 after closing as a school in the 1970s.

On Saturday, October 3, an event is taking place at the centre, in Callis Street, Clare, to mark the 25th anniversary of its opening as a community centre.

Organisers hope that the event will feature stalls from groups that use the community centre, refreshments and a raffle.

They are also organising a display of materials about the history of the building, and are hoping residents from the local area will contribute.

So far they have a few pictures, including class photos, and one of the outside of the building.

But they need as much material as possible for the display, which they hope will be a chronological depiction of the history of the

ANNIVERSARY:
Clare's
Old School Community

Olive Smith, who is chair of trustees for Combined Halls of Clare, the charity which runs the building, said: "There are pictures of children in the playground, and somebody going round a beanpole. There's one of the school about 80 years ago. It's not necessarily the education part, but the building as well. We've also got a copy of a school certificate which is 80 years old.

"It's hard work and we haven't had many responses yet. Whatever we get I will get into near as possible chronological order."

She's asking anyone who has any pictures and memorabilia – or anyone who went to the school – to get in touch.

One person she would be especially keen to hear from is Andrew Allen, whose pictures of the school were featured on the Haverhill News' letters page in 2013.

Anyone is welcome to attend the anniversary event.

For more information, or if you have pictures or memorabilia to share, call Olive on 01787 277 082, or email olivehsmith32@btinternet.com.

£3000 grants for broadband

BUSINESSES are being given grants of thousands of pounds so that they can set up a faster broadband connection.

Connecting Cambridgeshire, which aims to improve broadband in the county, is extending the grant scheme to cover all CB postcodes.

This means that Haverhill (CB9) is now covered, as well as Newmarket (CB8) and Saffron Walden (CB10).

Small and medium sized businesses in these areas can now apply for vouchers to cover the cost of installing superfast broadband.

The vouchers, worth £100 to £3,000, are available to businesses with fewer than 250 employees, sole traders and charities. Business parks and home-based businesses can also apply, and those based on the same site can apply together. More than 4,000 businesses are eligible.

County councillor

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

Mathew Shuter, business champion for Cambridgeshire County Council's economy and environment Committee, said: "I am delighted that more businesses on the Cambridgeshire borders can now benefit from Connection Vouchers to help improve their broadband connectivity, which is vital so that they can grow and compete in a digital world."

"Hundreds of businesses have already benefited from this popular scheme, but the funding is going fast so we are urging businesses to apply as soon as possible."

The scheme is funded by the government, who expanded it after demand from business in West Suffolk and North-West Essex.

Nic Rumsey, director of Jaynic, the developer of Haverhill Research Park, said: "We are delighted that Haverhill is now eligible for connection vouchers to boost its digital connectivity. This will hugely benefit the town and Haverhill Research Park, which has the potential to attract businesses employing up to a total of 3,000 people.

"Having a subsidy towards the cost of super-fast digital connectivity will make it an infinitely more appealing location for companies considering coming to the park and will put it on a par with other Cambridge business parks."

The scheme is being run by Connecting Cambridgeshire's support project Destination Digital.

To find out if your business is eligible, visit www.destinationdigital.info/vouchers. Applications will be processed in September.

Homes & Gardens

A busy time in the garden

GARDENERS are especially busy at this time of year as the run-in to autumn begins, so here's a list of what needs to be done in preparation for the change of season.

■ Clip lavender to clear the dead flowerheads and re-shape the plants, ensuring you don't cut into old wood

■ If you've been away and your containers haven't been watered and look like they've had it, tip them out and start again, focusing on autumn planting schemes

■ Check plants such as roses and honeysuckles for powdery mildew and try to improve the growing conditions by soaking the ground with water and giving them a high potash feed

LAVENDER: Needs clipping

■ As rows in the veg plot become vacant, refill them with sowings of fast-growing varieties of carrots, peas and turnips, as well as lettuce and baby spinach leaves for salads

■ Take softwood cuttings

from tender perennials including pelargoniums, verbena, penstemons and shrubby salvias and leave them in small pots or trays in the greenhouse

■ Harvest greenhouse tomatoes, peppers, aubergines and cucumbers

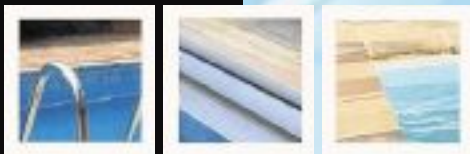

■ Complete division of bearded irises

■ Support tall-growing clumps of perennial asters including Michaelmas daisies, which are starting to flop now the flowers are out

■ Clip hornbeam, beech, Leyland cypress and thuja hedges before mid-September

■ Get your compost heap in order as autumn clearing generates a lot of waste for the heap.

ASK ABOUT FOR NEW TRIPLE GLAZED WINDOWS

the guide

WHOEVER first came up with the brainwave of combining the pop-punk musical forces of McFly and Busted into one, bolder, brighter new outfit deserves a medal. While both bands were superbly popular in their own rights, between them having sold over 15 million records worldwide, chalking up 14 number ones along the way, the hi-jinks seem to have actually doubled with their coming-together, rather than being diluted by the meeting-of-the-ways.

So successful was the initial tour together, the lads ended up putting out a McBusted album which promptly hopped into the UK Top 10 last year. Their new material sits alongside all the zingers from their combined back-catalogue: who DOESN'T love Year 3000, Crashed The Wedding, All About You and Five Colours In Her Hair?

And now McBusted are coming to Newmarket this weekend for the racecourses' Summer Saturday Live set. Racing from 12.15 to 6.30pm.

Tickets from £17, newmarkttickets.thejockeyclub.co.uk or 0844 579 3010.

Murder mystery

In our humble opinion, nothing beats a good ol' whodunnit, so it's highly likely we'll be on the front row at Cambridge Arts Theatre, magnifying glass in hand, for a special staging of Agatha Christie's "And Then There Were None".

Widely considered a mystery masterpiece, for sheer thrills and chills, whodunnits don't get much better than this...

Plot-wise, a group of 10 strangers find themselves on a remote island off the coast of Devon, only to discover that their host, an eccentric millionaire has gone missing.

Stranded on the island by a storm and haunted by an ancient nursery rhyme, one by one the guests begin to die. With only the fallen believed to be innocent, who among them is the killer? Cue dramatic music.

Starring Dalziel and Pascoe's Colin Buchanan, Neil Stacy, Deborah Grant, Mark Curry, Emmerdale star Frazier Hines, Ben Nealon, Kezia Burrows, best known as Cath Llewellyn in the BBC drama series Crash, and Eric Carte from Bouquet of Barbed Wire, the Agatha Christie Theatre Company production will have you second guessing all evening. See you there.

And Then There Were None, Cambridge Arts Theatre, runs until Saturday, at 7.45pm. Tickets £15-£30 from (01223) 503333 or cambridgeartstheatre.com.

BMW 3 Series tops list of the UK's most popular used cars

THE BMW 3 Series is the most in demand used car in Britain according to new research.

The study from automotive data experts, CAP found that BMW proved the most popular car brand that consumers searched for online with almost 11 per cent of online searches.

This was followed by Ford, which claimed just over 10 per cent of the online searches with the Fiesta the most popular model would-be car buyers were looking at.

In third place was Volkswagen with the ever-popular Golf proving its most searched for model.

The Top 10 Searched For Car Brands Online (and the most popular model for each):

1. BMW (3 Series Saloon)
2. Ford (Fiesta)
3. Volkswagen (Golf)
4. Vauxhall (Corsa)
5. Audi (A3 Sportback)
6. Mercedes Benz (C Class Saloon)
7. Peugeot (207)
8. Renault (Clio)
9. Toyota (Yaris)
10. Honda (Jazz)

Philip Nothard, consumer editor at

THE BMW 3 SERIES: Huge popularity across the used car spectrum

CAP said: "When it comes to searching for a used car, it is clear that buyers are looking for reassurance and reliability with the brands they look at. The top 10 car brands searched for are all long-serving favourites such as the BMW 3 Series, the Ford Fiesta, and the much loved VW Golf. "Perhaps because these models have been around sometime then there is always one to fit every budget."

Meanwhile consumer vehicle data provider My Car Check has warned of a sharp rise in scams targeting used car and motorbike buyers and sellers. Telltale signs that connen might be involved include:

1. Vehicles advertised for far less than they're worth
2. Mention of shipping car to or from another country
3. All communication conducted via email, often in broken English.

Justin Powell, manager of My Car Check's Glasgow call centre, said: "We are constantly hearing about scams in the used vehicle market, but the frequency of these calls has increased markedly in recent weeks. They are nearly always private sales (not vehicles offered by dealers) because the crooks prey on peoples' unfamiliarity with the process. We urge both buyers and sellers to be extra vigilant. The volume and complexity of these scams suggests the involvement of organised criminal gangs.

"For buyers, our history checks can prevent an expensive mistake, but all too often people contact us after the event, because they fear something is wrong. One such customer recently transferred £11,000 on the promise of a car being shipped from Germany. It was a classic escrow scam. Rather than going into a secure holding account, the money was simply pocketed by the criminals. The car will never arrive."

To help UK consumers make the right choice, My Car Check can confirm in seconds whether your potential pride and joy has ever been scrapped, stolen or written-off, has any money owing on it, or has had a plate or colour change.

For further information please go to mycarcheck.com.

BAR: The new Vauxhall Astra

All-new Brit-built Astra ready to debut

VAUXHALL'S all-new Brit-built Astra will premiere at the 2015 International Motor Show (IAA) in Frankfurt on September 15. Built at Vauxhall's Ellesmere Port plant in Cheshire, the new Astra is up to 200kg lighter than the outgoing model and thanks to its clever design it is smaller on the outside and bigger inside.

The powertrain portfolio features petrol and diesel units ranging from 100PS to 200PS, including an all-new 1.4-litre (145PS) Ecotec Direct Injection Turbo, a four-cylinder unit from the same family as the one-litre, three-cylinder engine seen in Corsa, Adam and Viva.

Equipped with OnStar, the first all-new Vauxhall to feature this kit; this includes high-speed 4G LTE mobile network, emergency response notification and stolen vehicle recovery technology. It also features Apple CarPlay and Android Auto.

Discount Autoparts is in administration

For over 30 years, Discount Autoparts has installed quality products into vehicles all over Cambridgeshire. Their efforts and dedication has been admired by other installation companies in Cambridge.

Sadly, however, Discount Autoparts has now ceased trading. A "notice of administration" on the firm's website says: "On 14 August 2015 Tony Mitchell and Brett Barton of Cranfield Business Recovery Limited were appointed as Joint Administrators of Alroma Distribution Ltd ("the Company"). The affairs, business and property of the Company are being managed by the Joint Administrators. The Joint Administrators act as agents of the Company only and contract without personal liability. This website has been suspended following the appointment of the Joint Administrators."

"By email to office@cranfieldbusinessrecovery.co.uk."

CBS Automotive, as the only independent workshop-based installation company in Cambridge today, are sorry to see the loss of such an established business.

CBS Automotive's managing director, Naeem Khokhar, comments: "Discount Auto Parts was an innovative and professional business which cared for its customers and staff throughout their time as a reputable independent installation company."

"Discount Autoparts will forever be remembered as a trusted and reliable installation company, not only in the industry but also by the local community."

THE NEW HONDA CIVIC TYPE R: Kaiser Chiefs' Ricky Wilson in Swindon for collection

It's just Kaiser Ricky's Type of riot!

KAISER Chiefs' front man Ricky Wilson rocked up to Honda of the UK manufacturing plant in Swindon this week to pick up his new racy British-built Civic Type R.

Fresh from putting the Civic Type R through its paces on the famous hillclimb at the Goodwood Festival of Speed at the end of June, Ricky is now the proud owner of a Brilliant Sporty Blue model complete with the all-new +R mode button which increases the response of chassis and engine for enhanced driving skills.

Speaking after taking his first spin, Ricky exclaimed: "What an amazing feeling. This is the first time I've ever had a new car and it's also the first time I've had a car that's a boy. My other two cars were girls!

"I got in the car and instinctively I knew where everything was, I feel at home in it already... and I'll get home even quicker!"

Ricky was also treated to a tour of the birth place of his car and added: "It was like a movie - I could hear the Terminator theme music in my head as I walked around. The technology and scale of the operation is out of this world."

For further information on the Civic Type R range please visit johnbanks.co.uk or to keep up with all things social, get involved with #TypeR.

Alleyne and Gardner given trials at Barnet

TEENAGERS Tyrone Alleyne and Will Gardner enjoyed a dream opportunity this week when they swapped regular club Haverhill Rovers for a trial at Sky Bet League Two side Barnet.

The pair, both 17, have impressed for Rovers' first team in the Thurlow Nunn League, Premier Division, and after attracting the attention of Barnet's academy scout, were invited for a trial at the north London outfit.

Alleyne, a striker, and Gardner, a defender, trained with the Barnet youth team on Monday and both played in a match on Tuesday.

Barnet have opted to extend Alleyne's trial for two more weeks and he will be involved in a youth-team fixture against MK Dons this weekend.

Gardner has returned to the New Croft but Rovers player-manager Michael Shinn said Barnet will monitor his progress.

"It's great news," said Shinn. "Both of them have done really well for us."

"For a professional club to take two boys at the level we play at is really rare. It shows how well the players have done over the last eight to 10 months."

Shinn added: "Their success is mainly down to themselves but it shows the club are doing the right things to help these young lads."

"All the boys in the team are delighted they've had this opportunity. It shows the boys in the under-18s that if they work hard their chance will come."

Football

Rovers' difficult start to the season continued with a 1-0 loss at home to Mildenhall.

The winning goal came after just 15 minutes of Tuesday night's match, and although Rovers exerted some pressure on the latter stages, they were unable to get the equaliser.

The defeat followed a 4-1 loss to last year's champions Norwich United on Saturday.

Ryan Weaver gave Shinn's side the ideal start when he put them 1-0 up, and that was the way it stayed until half time.

But Norwich hit back in the second half with four unanswered goals to complete their victory.

"We knew the start of the season would be difficult," said Shinn.

"The performances have been good, although the scorelines suggest otherwise."

"We've got a young side that we're trying to develop so it's not easy. But we're playing well and creating opportunities."

"We've played the top three from last year in our first four games so hopefully now we'll have a run of matches where we can play the way we want to play."

Shinn will hope the team will now start to turn their results around starting this Saturday when Rovers travel to Swaffham Town.

In the First Division, Haverhill Borough enjoyed a 3-2 win at Sudbury reserves on Tuesday night.

An own goal, and efforts from Ben Bradley and player-manager Martin Westcott secured the win.

But on Saturday, Borough were not so fortunate as they lost 2-0 at home to Great Yarmouth Town.

Borough keeper Charlie Turner had to make some good saves in the first half to keep the visitors out.

Leon Bailey had Borough's best chance in the first half in the 40th minute, but he was unable to force the ball past the Yarmouth keeper.

The visitors took the lead just before half time, and continued to have the upper hand for much of the second half.

Turner had to make two more good saves in the closing stages of the match but there was nothing he could do to stop the visitors adding a second goal in the final minute.
